

OILERS ARE RAINED OUT WHILE WICHITA WINS FROM DES MOINES

Downpour Prevents Battle Giving Oilers Day's Rest

Expect to Play Second of Series Today;
Finn to Report.

YARYAN'S HOMER WINS

Second Placers Cop Game With Des Moines—Saint Joe Walkers Indians.

Special to The World

OMAHA, Neb., May 6.—Rain postponed the battle here today of the Tulsa Oilers and Omaha. It is hoped to be able to play tomorrow. A heavy downpour left the field too muddy to play today.

The Oilers are confident of taking the remaining games from Jack Leibelt's team. With Paine out of the way Manager Abbott thinks he can win all three games of the set. Last year the Tulsaans had won nothing here, winning almost all of their battles on the Omaha lot.

Abbott expects to use Ray Rich mond tomorrow. The twirler recovered from the St. Louis Browns is going good and is strong in the pinches. Carl Adams might get a try here also. Ellington or Clegg may be sent in one of the games.

Manager Abbott today wired for Outfielder Johnny Conlan and Pitcher Pat Finn to report to the team at St. Joseph on Sunday. Conlan was left behind when the Oilers left, but the Oiler boss figures he might be needed in an emergency. Abbott said he is too late to report for duty. He is a hurler who worked formerly in the New York State league. Abbott received a wire from him today that he had reached Tulsa, and at once gave the new hurler instructions to report at St. Joseph.

While the Oilers were idle Wichita, who is in second place, defeated Des Moines, and the Oilers are still first.

Wichita Wins.

TULSA, Okla., May 6.—Yaryan's home run clout with bases on the sacks broke a tie score and enabled Wichita to defeat Des Moines here this afternoon. Both Bowman and Morris buried good ball.

TEACH MOTHER LOVE

Member of Boy's Department of Y. M. C. A. Are Taught Greater Appreciation by Learning Pledge.

"Mother's Week," the week of May 3-10, is being observed by the boys department of the Y. M. C. A. The purpose of the week is to teach the boys the meaning and appreciation of mother, F. S. Woodson, assistant boys' secretary said. Every boy entering the building during the week will have an opportunity to sign the following pledge:

To Mother

"Mothers Day brings again to my mind the many sacrifices you have made for me and the high hopes you have built up on my life."

"It is my pledge and purpose, made this day to my Mother and my God, that I shall never be found guilty of the things which would mar my character in any way and will always endeavor to be clean in my personal, my sports, and my life.

"I am doing this to make my manhood more worthy of your sacrifice and love for me."

The name, address, and church relationship will be reported of boys who sign this pledge. It should be given to those lads to unite with the church of their choice on Mother's day. May 9, officials of the boys department said.
